Advocate

I'm convinced of this: Good done anywhere is good done everywhere.

—Maya Angelou

The theme for Women's History Month 2024 is “Women Who Advocate for Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion.” According to History.com, this theme recognizes women who understand the need to eliminate bias and discrimination from individuals' lives and institutions. DEI, as the trio of values is often abbreviated, is a core tenet of AAUW's strategy. I thought it might be useful to share what these terms mean to the organization.

Diversity: “Diversity means variety and is all about what makes us unique.” Diversity relates to people's characteristics. There are many dimensions to diversity; for the DEI movement it primarily refers to those aspects such as ethnicity, gender, and religious beliefs that have historically been used to differentiate people. DEI efforts aim to increase diversity—for the benefit of individuals and for the community. In the business world (which is my background), increased diversity is recognized as contributing to more innovation and creativity, better decision-making, faster problem-solving, more error-correcting, as well as a range of social and psychological benefits. All good stuff—don't you agree?

March 8 International Women's Day

Inspire Inclusion

Equity: “Equity means everyone having equal access to what they need to be successful,” says the AAUW website. Equity and equality mean different things, although the terms are often used interchangeably. Equality means everybody gets the same thing. Equity is about leveling the playing field so that everyone's opportunity is equal. Social equity initiatives generally seek to eliminate the effects of systemic inequalities of the past and present so that chances of success become fairer. It's interesting that the Women's History Month theme puts E before D and I. The Center for Creative Leadership asserts that this is the way things should be because without Equity, efforts for Diversity and Inclusion are not sustainable.

Inclusion: Diversity advocate Verna Myers once said, “Diversity is being asked to the party. Inclusion is being asked to dance.” Inclusion requires cultural changes that create environments where everyone feels welcome, supported, respected, and valued. We don't get the benefits of diversity if inclusion isn't also part of the equation. What really brings the concept home for me is recalling the times when I wasn't included. There were many times when I was the only woman at the table. In some groups that didn't matter, but in others the vibe in the room was definitely not conducive to dancing!

This year's theme recognizes women who advocate. Advocacy is public. It's taking even a small, local step toward telling your community what you believe in. As Elie Wiesel said, “Silence helps the tormenter, never the tormented.” This month, we can join together and take a moment to speak our values.

School Board, Candidates, and Parcel Tax—Oh My!

Quality Public Education for ALL:
What This Means and How We Can Ensure It:

Thursday, March 21; 6:30–7:30 PM
San Ramon Community Center, Terrace Room
12501 Alcosta Blvd., San Ramon

Don't miss this opportunity to gain a better understanding of what the SRVUSD School Board and other school boards around the nation are facing, as we will hear from Laura Bratt, SRVUSD School Board President, who will be interviewed by Ravneet Julka, local PTA leader, parent, and lawyer. During this conversational program, we will learn ways we can continue to support public education in the San Ramon Valley while building an understanding of the Parcel Tax election too.

Here is a bit more about Laura. As president for the San Ramon Valley Unified School District Board of Education, Laura Bratt sees leadership as an opportunity to empower others, striving to bring empathy and non-judgment into every situation.

A lifelong learner, Laura digs into research and listens to others' perspectives, working to ensure that concerns are discussed, questions are answered, and everyone walks away feeling united.

With a professional background in marketing, communications, and graphic design, Laura graduated from the University of Wisconsin with a degree in art and is currently working in Marketing and Communications at UC Berkeley's Magnes Collection of Jewish Art and Life.

For the last 17 years, Laura has been volunteering and filling leadership roles in public schools. She currently serves as chair of the TRAFFIX Board and as a board liaison for SRVUSD's Equity Steering, Strategic Arts, Parcel Tax Oversight, LCAP Stakeholder, and Special Education Community Advisory Committees.

Laura and her husband, Shawn, are raising four insightful, independent-minded teenagers in the Dougherty Valley after moving them from Martinez, to France, to Delaware, to SoCal, and back to the Bay Area—all grateful to put down roots in the San Ramon Valley, near family and friends.

Our interviewer, Ravneet Julka, is a mother of four children, ages 7 to 18 years old. After graduating from the San Ramon Valley Unified School District, she went on to UC Davis where she first interned for former Lieutenant Governor Gray Davis. Her internship developed into a permanent job when Mr. Davis was elected governor of California.

After spending a few years in the governor's office in both Sacramento and Washington DC, Ravneet then attended UC Hastings (now known as UC Law) in San Francisco. During her first year in law school, Ravneet married the love of her life and followed him to Georgia—where she then spent nearly 20 years raising her children, working intermittently in local government and in the private legal world, and coaching youth sports.

Since returning home to the San Ramon Valley in 2020, Ravneet has been an active volunteer in PTA, advocating for children's issues at school sites and local school board meetings. She is passionate about ensuring that all children receive a quality education and that all families are welcome and integrated into our community. In her spare time, she works as an attorney, learning new skills every day.

Both Laura and Ravneet, along with countless community members, are passionate about these issues. They will enlighten us, yet there's no need to wait to dig in: Learn more about this issue and AAUW's perspective: CLICK HERE

Come prepared to gain a greater understanding of what is happening and what is of greatest import and impact. You'll also learn how we can positively influence others plus take action to support public education for all.

The event is open to the public. Danville-Alamo-Walnut Creek Branch members will be our guests too. The event is free to all. An Evite has been sent, please respond to ensure we've an accurate count of attendees.

Thanks!

Tech Trek

A huge THANK YOU to our members and guests that enjoyed a tasty meal at Gianni's Italian Bistro. Thanks to your generosity, we raised $2,690 for Tech Trek! Great service was provided by our fantastic servers – Roshawn Campbell, Ashley Cherry, Ruth Clay, Jessenia Cohen, Thomas Longwood, Ashley Middlebrooks, and Karen Rice. The amount we raised will support the cost of two Tech Trek camperships. We appreciate your generosity and support for this great program.

We received nominations from three of the middle schools (waiting to hear from one more) and will begin the selection process in March. Our goal is to send four girls to residential camp held at Sonoma State and two girls to virtual camp.

More information about Tech Trek can be found here:

Please spread the word to friends, relatives, colleagues, neighbors, and social groups. You can dine in, call in your order, order online, or take out your meal. Print the flyers on page 13 of this newsletter to pass out to your neighbors and friends. Flyers will also be at the counter.

Important: When you pay for your meal, have your receipt stapled to the flyer.
Scholarship will receive 25% of the proceeds.

Lunch Bunch plans to meet on March 4 for their monthly luncheon—thank you to Margo James for helping! It will be a great week for our members not to have to cook lunch or dinner. We look forward to seeing you at Dos Coyotes and a fun fundraiser! If you have any questions, please contact Julie Gin.

Donor Gift Basket Drawing To Be Held at the March 2024 Program

Once again, Local Scholarship will offer a drawing for a Thank-You Donor Gift Basket for anyone who donates to AAUW San Ramon Local Scholarship. Donations made starting July 1, 2023 through the day of the drawing at the March program on Thursday, March 21 (see page 4) are eligible. Any member, their family, or friends who make a monetary donation, regardless of amount, either directly or through SPF, will have their name entered in the drawing. ONE LUCKY donor's name will be drawn, and the winner doesn't need to be present to win—but how fun if they are!

We plan a stunning basket to celebrate our generous donors. It will contain a bottle of Prosecco, 2 champagne glasses, plus salty and sweet snacks to enjoy.

Thank you in advance for your generous support of Local Scholarship!

High School Scholarships Update

The application for the Local Scholarship award has been posted on the San Ramon AAUW website. Counseling and Career staff have been contacted at California High and Dougherty Valley High. Students can access the application directly through our website, and site staff may also chose to provide hard copies. The deadline for submission of the application is March 22, 2024.

Renaissance Scholars Update

We had originally planned to meet with this year's scholarship recipients on February 7, but CSUEB was experiencing its third day of a power outage and the campus was closed. We are scheduled to meet on March 6 to give our current recipients their second $500 check and to spend some time just "checking in."

The application for the 2024 Scholarship award has been given to the Renaissance Scholars Program Coordinator and the deadline for submission of the application is March 8, 2024.

Thanks to Renaissance Scholars for help at the Gianni's Tech Trek fundraiser!

In Memoriam

Pat Campbell
July 10, 1935–January 28, 2024

Pat Campbell, longtime member of San Ramon AAUW, passed away at her home in Danville in the loving care of her family on January 28, 2024. Pat was born in Detroit, Michigan and had lived in Danville since 1978. She is survived by her two children, Cari and Chris, and their families and predeceased by her husband, Barry.

Pat began her education in Detroit, graduating from Marygrove College, earning a certificate in Speech and Language Pathology from Wayne State University and a Master's Degree from the University of Michigan. Pat worked as a Speech and Language Therapist in hospitals, clinics, and public schools her entire career—including San Ramon Valley Unified—until she retired in 2001.

In July of 2002, Pat became a member of the San Ramon Branch of AAUW. In addition to her other volunteer and social activities in San Ramon and Danville, Pat became a valued and active member of our branch. Pat participated in the Book Exchange and was part of the Hospitality Committee, but found her “true passion” as a member of the Local Scholarship Committee, serving for over 15 years.

Pat shared her keen sense of humor, intelligence, and wit with this group and everyone she met, always with a kind smile and a twinkle in her eye. She was very focused on providing information and support for our scholarship recipients, especially those from the CSUEB Renaissance Scholars Program. Her wide range of experiences made her a valuable asset to the committee as they planned services and interventions for these young women. Pat brought a thoughtful analysis to every meeting, providing her insight, experience, and suggestions for fundraising projects and plans for the future. We remember her as a treasured friend and will miss her greatly.

Public Policy

The Role of California School Boards

By Seena Trigas, Member AAUW California Public Policy Committee School Board Project

For more information about AAUW California Public Policy Initiatives, please visit <https://www.aauw-ca.org/public-policy/>

AAUW California is concerned about the censorship of classroom material, the heightened enforcement of board policies rejecting diversity, and providing discriminatory policies against gay and minority students. This concern now leads me, as a former school board member, high school teacher/department chair and adjunct college professor, to reflect on the role of school boards in California and their limitations.

The State Board of Education (SBE) is the controlling structure for K-12 and is the governing and policy-making body of the state for public education. Among its duties is the adoption of statewide academic standards for content and curriculum frameworks. These inform and guide the local school boards in the development and implementation of specific curricula for K-12 students and serve as the basis for the adoption of instructional materials. School board members represent districts within the school district boundaries. As the only locally elected officials representing the interests of school children, board members are advocates for students, the district's educational programs and public education. The California Education Code requires that governing boards of school districts adopt instructional materials in accordance with the state framework adopted by the State Board of Education and district boards shall provide substantial teacher involvement in the selection of instructional materials.

In 2016, the New State Framework in History and Social Sciences was issued and supported the Fair, Accurate, Inclusive and Respectful (FAIR) Act. Part of the requirements indicate that all K-12 students shall receive instruction that "strongly emphasizes student inquiry" and "reflects on the contributions of many diverse groups. In 2019 the California School Boards Association (CSBA) Governance Brief stated that "Effective school boards are equity-driven, making intentional governance decisions that combat institutional discrimination and bias (both explicit and implicit) and eliminate disparities in educational outcomes based on socioeconomic status, gender, gender identity, gender expression, race, religion, national origin, ethnicity, sexual orientation, disability or family background."

In 2023 AB1078 was passed, which requires the California State Department of Education to assess if school boards are in compliance with state laws requiring public schools to provide diverse and comprehensive education. It requires local school districts with insufficient instructional materials to correct this and authorizes the department to purchase (at district expense) adequate curricula if the district restricts students from learning about important topics like racism, sexism, and gender-based marginalization.

AAUW branch members play a critical role in ensuring all California school boards are governed by board members who will follow AB 1078, and who oppose policies that infringe on the civil rights of LGBTQ+ students. All our members are encouraged to become vigilant observers of their local districts, and to contact your assigned liaison if members are not meeting their obligations under the guidelines outlined above.

AAUW Fund 2023 Wrap-Up

Thanks to the many AAUW San Ramon members who generously supported the AAUW Fund, we were able to contribute $4,423 to the national AAUW Fund in 2023!

It takes a huge effort to run an organization like AAUW. The administration of fellowships, the research, the lobbying, the seminars, and resources—these are all paid for by AAUW Fund. We would not have a branch were it not for the national effort.

Two actions for this spring:

- When you get the email, please vote YES to remove AAUW's educational barriers. A YES vote will open the door to more new members and increase the number of financial grants AAUW is eligible to apply for. Both these results will strengthen our organization.
- Please consider contributing to AAUW Greatest Needs Fund when you renew this year. The most popular amounts given by our members were $100 and $35, and we had a few very generous people who gave even more!

Thank you!
